PROMOTING CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND WOMEN, EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGICAL WELLBING IN NABLUS –OLD CITY

We noticed the amazing development in the children, youth, women, during the classes that we are providing. In the different programs, in the school support program this month the children took many activities full of playing and enjoyment that were effective with the children to understand the educational context. In the illiteracy classes for women and youth, they played with balloon, drawing on the cards. In the illiteracy classes, the women are attending regularly to the classes and everyday they are learning more, about Arabic and mathematics, as well as the dropped out that they are increasingly flow to HSA.

VOICE OF KIDS

In November, the kid's team is taking diffident activities including lots of fun and an educational means; the facilitator will give them many activities to prepare for the last stage "the magazine stage" The children are now working on the magazine pages that will be lunched in the coming couple months as we hope.

HUMAN RIGHTS THEATRE PROJECT SECOND STAGE:

Gladly the youth in the human rights theater project is finishing the activities of the third stage. They practiced a lot on their 7 short plays. That they will present in I n Sharek forum next month, these plays included the right of education, the Civilians rights during the war, the refugee's situation in the camps, and other titles.
