INTERNATIONAL DELIGATION:

Many international groups of volunteers have visited Human Supporters during September, (Italian, French, Spanish, and also from many other nationalities), which their visits aims to express their solidarity to the Palestinians that are living in a hard situation under the occupation

As usual we have offered them a tour through the old city of Nablus, and we introduced them to what the old city suffered since the invasion in 2002 until the present. Mr. WajdiYaesh the director of H.S.A was their guide in every tour. As we presented Human Supporters history and activities that all were based on the suffering and the influence of the occupation
